OFFICE OF GENERAL
COUNSEL

In the matter of:

CAT PING FOR CONGRESS
C00568774

MUR 6904

CONCERNED 7TH DISTRICT NEIGHBORS

COMPLAINT

Cat Ping for Congress violated the Federal Election Campaign Act by failing to comply with the disclaimer requirements for communications and solicitations paid for by an authorized political committee. The so-called group "Concerned 7th District Neighbors" violated the Act by failing to comply with the disclaimer requirements for communications either authorized by or not authorized by a candidate committee.

1. This complaint is filed with the Federal Election Commission ("FEC") in accordance with the provisions of 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(1) in the belief that Cat Ping for Congress ("CPC") and Concerned 7th District Neighbors ("CDN") violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, 52 U.S.C. §§ 30101 et. seq. (the "Act").

Violations by Cat Ping for Congress

2. Whenever an authorized political committee of a candidate makes a disbursement for the purpose of financing any printed communication it must clearly state that the communication has been paid for by such authorized political committee. 52 U.S.C. § 30120(a). The "paid for by" notice is commonly referred to as the disclaimer.
3. Pursuant to the Act, the disclaimer for printed communications by authorized political committees shall.
  - a. Be of sufficient type size to be clearly readable by the recipient of the communication;
  - b. Be contained in a printed box set apart from the other contents of the communication; and
  - c. Be printed with a reasonable degree of color contrast between the background and the printed statement. 52 U.S.C. § 30120(c)(1)-(3).

4. "Cat Ping for Congress" is the name of the committee CPC registered with the FEC on September 19, 2014. See Exhibit 1 (FEC Form 1 Statement of Organization).
5. CPC violated 52 U.S.C. § 30120 of the Act by failing to include the required disclaimer on its website. See Exhibit 2, CPC webpage, www.catping.com, (accessed Nov. 2, 2014). FEC regulations specifically apply the disclaimer requirements to "all Internet websites of political committees available to the general public." 11 C.F.R. § 110.11(a)(1). Specifically, CPC violated the Act and FEC regulations by using the wrong name in the "paid for by" disclaimer. CPC says that it is paid for by the "Cat Ping for Congress Committee 2014." There is no committee registered with the FEC by that name. Second, the disclaimer is not contained in a printed box set apart from the other contents of the communication as required under the Act.
6. CPC violated 52 U.S.C. § 30120 by failing to include the required disclaimers on solicitations. See Exhibit 3, CPC on-line solicitation page, (Accessed Nov. 2, 2014). The CPC solicitation page does not include any "paid for by" disclaimer notice.
7. CPC violated 52 U.S.C. 30102(i) by failing to exercise best efforts to obtain, maintain, and submit contributor information required by the Act. Specifically, the "treasurer and political committee will only be deemed to have exercised best efforts to obtain, maintain and report the required [contributor] information if all written solicitations for contributions include a clear request for the contributor's full name, mailing address, occupation and name of employer, and include an accurate statement of Federal law regarding the collection and reporting of individual contributor identifications." 11 C.F.R. § 114.7(b)(1)(i). The CPC solicitation page does not include the required "best efforts" statement required by the Act and FEC regulations.

Violations by Concerned 7th District Neighbors

8. CDN violated 52 U.S.C. § 30120 of the Act by failing to include the required disclaimer in a newspaper advertisement that expressly advocated the election of a federal candidate. An advertisement in the Franklin Township Informer supporting candidate Cat Ping only states that it was paid for by "Concerned 7th District Neighbors." See Exhibit 4, Advertisement, Franklin Township Informer, p. 3 (Oct. 8, 2014). Specifically, CDN violated 52 U.S.C. § 30120(a)(2) or (3) by failing to indicate if the advertisement was authorized by the candidate or not authorized by the candidate.
9. If the CDN advertisement was authorized by the candidate, then it is a contribution to CPC and the cost of the advertisement may violate the Act's contribution limits and source restrictions at 52 U.S.C. §§ 30116 and 30118.

10. If the CDN advertisement was not authorized by the candidate, then it may be an independent expenditure. If CDN made an independent expenditure then it violated 52 U.S.C. § 30120(a)(3) by failing to "clearly state the name and permanent street address, telephone number or World Wide Web address of the person who paid for the communication and state that the communication is not authorized by any candidate or candidate's committee."
11. CDN may have violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(c) by failing to file an independent expenditure report with the FEC disclosing its donors and expenditures.

Conclusion

12. I request that the FEC review this matter and find reason to believe that CPC and CDN violated the Act by failing to place the required disclaimers on their communications and solicitations.
13. In addition, I request that the FEC find reason to believe that CDN violated the Act if it made an independent expenditure and failed to file the required public disclosure reports.

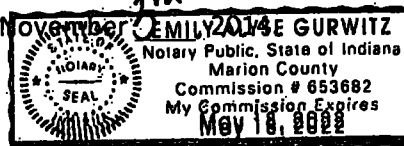

Respectfully submitted,

2014 FALL MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

In 1971, The Franklin Township Civic League (FTCL) started as an idea in someone's living room to help the then agrarian community prepare for becoming part of "the big city." 43 years later, Franklin Township has changed a lot!

But one thing that remains steadfast is community spirit.

So why join the Franklin Township Civic League? Why do you want to receive the Informer newspaper every week?

Receive the Informer each week with news about school and church activities, police runs, land use issues, local businesses, new library books and much more... Look through this special issue for just a small sampling of what the Informer offers.

And that's not all your $33 will do. Your membership dollars will also help:

Notice to Readers

The Franklin Township Civic League appreciates the efforts of political candidates to reach Franklin Township voters by placing advertisements in the Informer and will hope candidates will continue to use the paper as an integral part of their media strategies. However, effective October 8, 2014, at the direction of the Civic League Board of Directors, the Informer will no longer accept political ads to be placed on the front page of the Informer. Candidates ads will gladly be accepted for placement elsewhere in the paper.

FT Civic League Mission Statement

The Franklin Township Civic League, Inc., is a group of interested residents working for the common good of all those living and working within the limits of Franklin Township. It shall interest itself in working with all elected officials of Marion County, the City of Indianapolis and all other levels of government, to bring to the Township those improvements which would be expected to exist in an area located within the boundaries of a large metropolitan city, that of Indianapolis. It shall act as a voice for the people of Franklin Township to express their opinions and desires. It shall communicate to the residents such issues that would act as assets or detriments to their common good, giving a platform for those who wish to debate the issues in a forum of open-mindedness. The League shall work with those groups already established and with those to be established in the township which have a mutual understanding and like goals of the League membership.

Request a City service, report a problem

From potholes to trash collection, hundreds of city services are just a phone call or a click away. The Mayor's Action Center, RequestIndy Online Portal and RequestIndy Mobile for iPhone and Android offer four different ways for residents to request services and connect with city government. The one-stop approach takes the guesswork out of reporting problems and helps ensure better responses, while tracking systems let users monitor the progress of their requests.

The Mayor's Action Center (MAC) provides the citizens of the Consolidated City of Indianapolis and Marion County with a single point of contact to request City services, obtain information, or provide feedback. The following are just a few of the issues that can be reported through the MAC: Potholes, Missed trash collections, Abandoned vehicles, Traffic signals or signs, Zoning violations, and many more!

In an effort to provide excellent customer service, the MAC now offers several ways for citizen's to request services and to check the status of an existing service request around the clock through RequestIndy online and the free RequestIndy Mobile Application. As always, the MAC can still be contacted by calling 317-327-4MAC (4622).
